MEXICO FAMILY CAMP

JUNE 15-21, 2013

Mexico Family Camp is a week of camping, serving, and growing together. Families from across the country meet in San Diego to travel together across the border to the Amor Family Campsite in La Gloria, Mexico. A tent city surrounds two circus tents where everyone gathers for incredible dinners and evening sessions featuring the Family Camp Worship team. Each day begins with family devotions and a hearty breakfast before boarding buses for the work sites. Family teams of 20 work each day to build homes for needy Mexican families. Campfires, a talent show, or theme parties top off each day's activities. Each year, families are deeply touched by the experience of working together, worshiping together, and growing together.

Be prepared for God to stretch you physically, mentally and spiritually. Don't miss this opportunity to touch the lives of Mexican families through your service, while you impress upon your family the things that matter most to God. You're building more than a shelter - your family is giving hope.
