

WINTER 2015 CATALOG

Yes2Love

The mission of Sherwood Oaks is the Great Commission left for us in Matthew 28—to go out into our world and help people become followers of Jesus. Then they can join us as we live by Jesus' Great Commandment, which is to love God and love others. That is the heart of the Yes2Love commitment—growing stronger in our faith and reaching out to others.

To guide us as we grow closer to God and lead others to Him, we follow these core values:

Worship

More than just something we go to on Sunday—offering every part of our lives to God daily

Connect

Making friends with others who share the same mission and values

Grow

Learning to live like Jesus through a variety of smaller groups and classes

Serve

Becoming the hands and feet of Jesus, serving the church, our community and the world

Share

Developing relationships with those who have yet to know God and sharing with them how he has changed our lives

9:15am Classes

Discovery | Linda Campbell |
Conference Room

For adults mostly 50's and over. The Discovery class is one of our original classes at Sherwood Oaks. This group of adults enjoys the warmth of friendship along with sharing many different topics from the Bible.

International Coffee Hour | Ed Huff

Living Stones | Bill Forney and Glenn
Toney | Chapel

Interested in learning "how-to" solutions to life's problems in a non-threatening setting? If so, we provide vast personal experiences of Divine Intervention to followers of Christ in a friendly atmosphere. We learn valuable lessons from God's Word and how the Holy Spirit guides, directs and enables us to face life, with confidence and assurance, in today's "topsy-turvy" world. We meet in the chapel for hymn-time, followed by prayer and the international Sunday School Lesson that includes personal questions and discussion.

9:30am Classes

Beacons | Bill Butler | R361

Bereans | Jerry Rominger | R360

Ray | G150

We are studying Bible lessons filmed on location in Israel where they happened. The series is called, That the World May Know with Ray VanderLaan and it was produced by Focus on the Family. This class will examine how to manage conflict in marriage, discuss the importance of commitment and trust, as well as teach you how to share fondness and admiration with your spouse. Different speakers each week will give you tools and tips for building a strong relationship as well as discuss the biblical principles for a God centered marriage. Simplify by Bill Hybels. Exhausted. Overwhelmed. Overscheduled. Sound familiar? Today's velocity of life can consume and control us . . . until our breakneck pace begins to feel normal and expected. Going Deeper | Fireside Room | 9:30am

Pulling the Thread by Jen Hatmaker. What does following Jesus really mean? How does following Jesus actually change everything? Women have been lulled into comfort and complacency as we build our lives, making sure we fit in and follow the rules. But deep inside, we know something is off. God invites his people to answer a unique call in their lives. And His call offers redemption and rescue. God is using women to meet the needs of those in crisis right in front of them. Are you going to "play it safe" or answer the call?

Married Track

You and Me Forever by Francis Chan.
Marriage is great, but it's not forever. It's until death do us part. Then come eternal rewards or regrets depending on how we spent our lives. Jesus was right. We have it all backwards. The way to have a great marriage is by not focusing on marriage. Marriage in Light of Eternity will radically shift the way we see one of the most important relationships in our life. You and Me Forever will help you discover the adventure that you were made for and learn how to thrive in it.

General Counseling

Several Christian counselors, both on staff and from the community, are available to help you through life's difficult times. Please contact Alan Phillips for assistance in finding the right counselor for your situation at aphillips@socc.org or 812.334.0206.

Marriage Mentoring

Marriage mentors walk alongside other married couples that have less "marriage mileage" than they have in this unique discipling relationship. Regardless of the stage of the marriage, mentoring can help couples not only survive during times of heartache and brokenness but more importantly thrive to move from good to great. To get connected, contact Janet at jwingard@socc.org.

Premarital Counseling

Prepare/Enrich assesses your relationship on constructs shown to be important for healthy relationships, creating awareness and dialogue around these areas. A trained

Prepare/Enrich Facilitator will guide you through your results, highlighting relationship strengths and using those strengths and skill-building exercises to grow areas that are not yet strengths- "growth areas". Visit socc.org/marriedlife to register.

Support Groups

Accountability, recovery and support groups for various addictions and family situations are available on a regular basis. Groups include pornography & sexual addictions, drugs & alcohol abuse and a support group for friends and family of gays/lesbians. Contact Mary at mmoll@socc.org for more information.

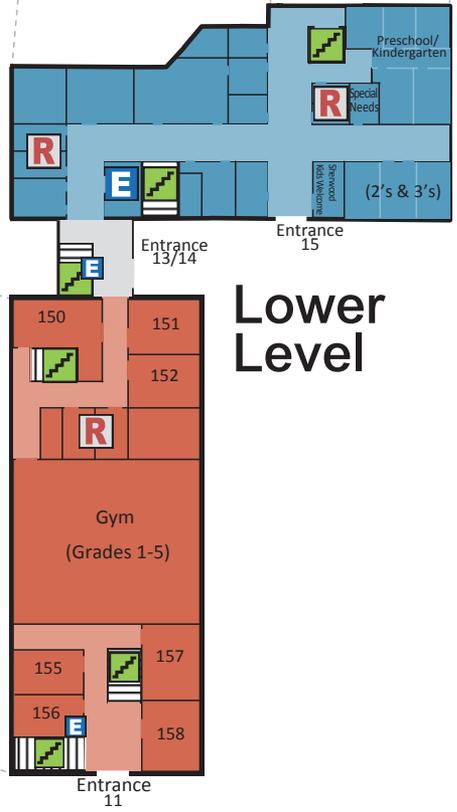

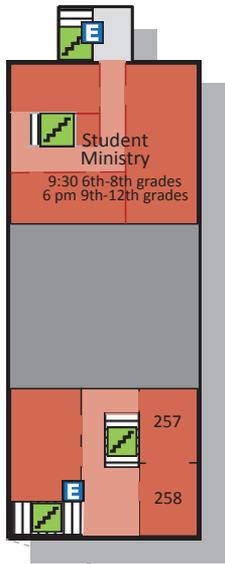

Pastoral Care
